HDMI™ connectivity (2 in / 1 out) with Active Intelligence (repeater). Allows you to run other HDMI™ sources through the BVD-IS1000 for simplicity and great sound

Xross media bar™ Graphical User Interface Provides intuitive and easy-to-understand operation with four directional controls.

Precision Cinema™ HD via HDMI upscaler The player can convert standard-definition signal (480i) of DVD and output at a 1080p video signal. Precision Cinema HD Upscale generates each pixel based on information from the original source, whether it is film or video and whether the pixel is in motion or still.
